COMIXOLOGY, LANDING PAGE TESTING

ComiXology is a cloud-based digital comics service owned by Amazon. The site was launched in 2007 in New York, as an online community for comic book lovers.

With content from over 125 publishers as well as thousands of independent creators from around the world, ComiXology provides an unrivalled library of comic books, graphic novels, manga etc

We have been working with ComiXology to support their growth since 2020.

CAMPAIGN APPROACH

COMIXOLOGY
an amazon company

THE OBJECTIVE:

Drive brand engagement through landing pages, leading to an increase in purchases while decreasing Cost per Purchases & increasing revenue.

THE CHALLENGE:

Comic fans are selective, and won't just purchase any title they see so we needed to generate new and renewed interest from users.

With so many available titles, ComiXology needed to find a way to appeal to the customer's unique interest without having to browse extensively through the site.

OUR APPROACH:

- We took the best performing creative from the evergreen campaign, to drive awareness of the extensive list of sales offered by comiXology.
- A/B tested different landing page experiences to determine which design converted best.

WHAT WE DID

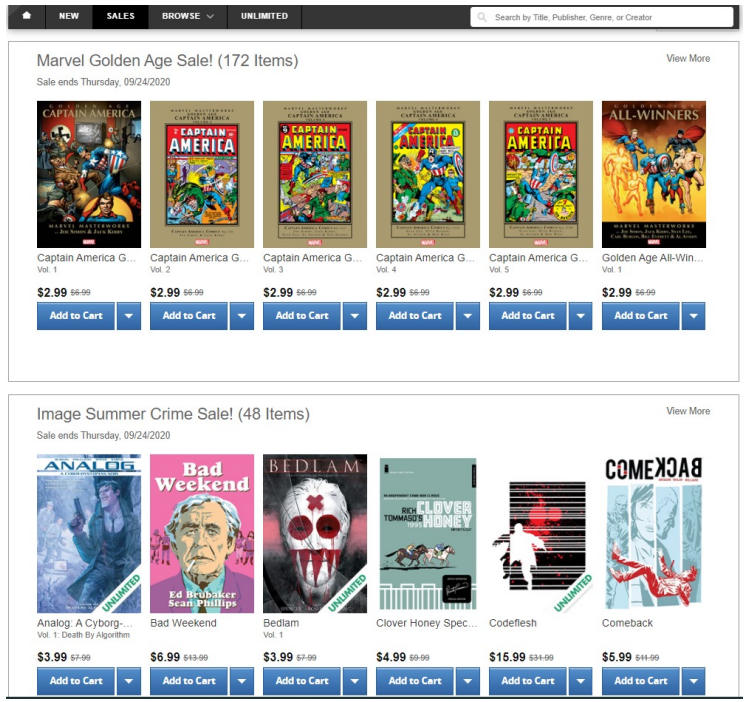
HOW WE CONDUCTED LANDING PAGE TESTING

We compared the performance of a landing page showing a 6-comic preview of multiple sales against a landing page showing a 30-comic preview of those same sales.

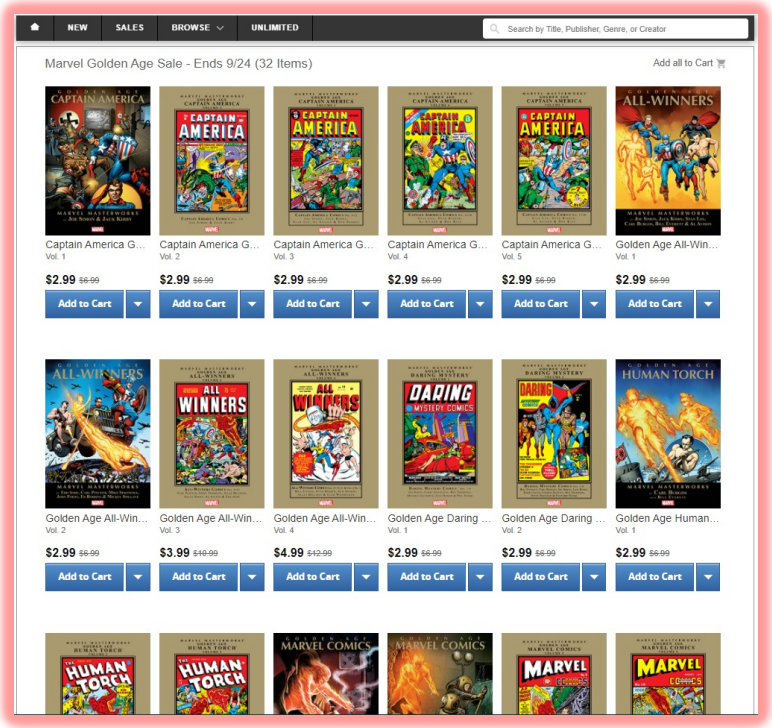
The main difference between the pages was the number of comics shown for each sale.

While on the multiple sales page, users had to click “view more” to see more products, on the expanded sale page, users would continue browsing without clicking out of the page.

MULTIPLE SALES



EXPANDED SALE



The streamlined browsing experience of the expanded sales page ended up converting best
