DRIVING MARKETING QUALIFIED LEADS VIA LINKEDIN

CATAPULT

Our client is a leading sports technology company founded in 2006 in Australia. Catapult exists to ‘build and love the performance of athletes and teams at all levels of sports’.

Catapult manufacture wearable technology and video analysis that enables players and teams to analyse performance across sports such as football, American football, cricket, ice hockey, baseball, basketball, rugby and Australian Rules.

M&C Saatchi Performance were appointed in 2021 as media agency, our goal in this campaign was to deliver Marketing Qualified Leads (MQL) via LinkedIn for their B2B products & services.

OUR APPROACH

OBJECTIVE:
DRIVE MARKETING QUALIFIED LEADS

CATAPULT

Catapult sell their service for professional football/soccer and other sports teams. In order to reach the audiences we use LinkedIn.

AUDIENCES:

There are two tiers of audience, both were priority coaches.

Firstly, super elite professional teams.

Secondly, mid-level professional sports teams.

Geography: all English-speaking markets with different sports at different times of the year.

TACTICS:

Tactic 1: Drive traffic to the Catapult homepage and optimize toward people filling out the 'Speak to Sales' form as one consumer journey.

Tactic 2: Use LinkedIn's native Lead Gen form ie consumers click on the ad unit in their feed, which auto-populates with their LinkedIn information. Leads were sent to the client CRM and the client followed up.
